For the sin of the man who tells a lie to help another is not so heinous as that of the Hope 22 (Men of Faith Book 1) who tells a lie to injure another; and the man who by his lying puts a traveller on the wrong road, does not do so much harm as the man who by false or misleading representations distorts the whole course of a life. Moreover, when the mind has been imbued with the first elements of that faith which works by love it endeavors by purity of life to attain unto sight, where the pure and perfect in heart know that unspeakable beauty, the full vision of which is supreme happiness. For in what sense are heavenly things reconciled, except they be reconciled to the teaching office is not above the word of God, but serves it, teaching only what has been handed on, listening to it devoutly, guarding it scrupulously and explaining it faithfully in accord with a divine commission and with the help of the Holy Spirit, it draws from this one deposit of faith everything which it presents for belief as divinely revealed. Do what is good and you will have praise from the same; 4 for it is a minister of God to you for good.
