About Brian Brian is a firm believer in living in the present. Each text message is a concrete projection of you and it is important to present yourself in The Texting Rules way you want to be perceived. Your hesitation means you still have underlying issues that will show up and totally sabotage you no matter how you communicate with a woman, be it text, email. What are the rules of texting? My Queue. I had heard nothing and was utterly confused. Since our whole world is so instant now, people can craft entire personas through their slew of texts. The perfect text for the situation, I say, would start with a statement, preferably no pressure, but your entire romantic future here could be determined by your first few text messages. This whirlwind of text talk and expectations has certainly made me a bit dizzy in a short period of time.
