This book has it all. I am retired now and one of my biggest joys in life is looking after my two grandchildren, along with gardening, writing and keeping fit, I now have a very relaxed lifestyle, not like the often frantic days when I was nursing. If you want to wonder down the path of memory lane then this is the book for Student Nurse 60s Style. During my thirty odd years as a nurse one of the many changes I saw, was the closing of all the local small hospitals; usually built in the Victorian times, to make way for one big hospital with all speciality's based on one site. Starched uniforms with little caps. BooksbyB.In the event that the courier company fails to deliver your order due to invalid address information, they will return the order back to Dymocks Online.
