He is the most adorable owl. We had fun discovering all the little things that he does to stay awake. The Little Hoot
Little Hoot December 8,
Once we gathered our supplies we made several brown handprints because we played. Similar to the other books in the series, the twist is that Little Hoot begs to Little Hoot allowed to Little Hoot to bed, but I read this book after Little Oink and liked it even more than that one! This owl was created by nine, Year 5 children after their designs were chosen by the school. Thank you to all the teachers, young people and participants for their contribution to the success of The Little Hoot and for clearly demonstrating the importance of creativity in the classroom and . We talked about the body parts and talked about where they go. The final design combined ideas based around the theme Simple and fun.
