Nov 10, failed to make us laugh. And that's the least funny book in the series (so that's saying a lot). Rick Riordan got even better around book three.

I realize that not all of the details are not an exact fit, but it does have the name, the red cover, a publication date early enough to be possible, and an unconventional for the times romance. But this man knew he had the goods too, if not in such a polished way.

Illustrated by Esther Friend. You can read more about it in the "Solved" section.

For one thing, the exit for the tunnel was too close to the guard house, and they had to post someone to let the men know when they could safely run to the woods. Languages Add links.
The reaction was intense: there was clapping, there was laughing, and there was a certain amount of yelling.

Murray Tinkelman, jacket illustrator. As like anyone shocked by the sudden appearance of a Pook, he was speechless. There's a "bug" in the store's computer program, however, and when Benjamin casually picks up a loose electrical cable, he is sucked into the machine.
