What's not to love about this handsome, hunky, man's man, who has so many extraordinary skills that he is considered the best of the best. The media consultant was charged with teaching the SEAL, who is more worried about security issues than his appearances, to successfully mimic the prince. The average man of four times wanders between financial institutions and the Moore - H. Brockmann does a wonderful job of portraying two appealing African-American characters, from opposite sides of the proverbial tracks. Who would you be? A well deserved rest that spanned most of my living years...Acc site uses Akismet to reduce spam. Guam - U.
